

2010 Winter Special Events

Celebrate! 75 Candles for Elvis (Farragut Folklife Museum)

Friday, Jan. 8, 5:30 – 8:30 PM. Cost: Free but donations are greatly appreciated. Join the Farragut Folklife Museum for an open house fundraiser in honor of Elvis' 75th birthday! The event will feature an extensive collection of Elvis memorabilia on loan from Lee Durand, Elvis impersonator Chris Baratta and live music by Offering. Light refreshments will also be served.

The Founding of Farragut: The Forefathers Speak

Saturday, Jan. 16, Storytelling: 4 – 5 PM; Reception: 5 – 6 PM. Would you like to discover all the details about how the Town of Farragut was founded? Then mark your calendars and hear the stories from the original seven community members who worked to incorporate the Town: Betty Dick, George Dorsey, Eric Johnson, Mayor Ralph McGill, Gene McNalley, David Rodgers and Ron Simandl.

Knoxiecross Cyclocross Series

Saturday, Feb. 20 and Sunday, Feb. 21, 10 AM both days at McFee Park on McFee Road. Tough courses with obstacles. Must be age 10 or older. Please see article on page one for more information or visit www.knoxiecross.com.

Farragut Intermediate School (FIS) Art Show

Monday, Feb. 15 – Thursday, Feb. 18 during regular Town Hall hours, 8 AM – 5 PM. View the work of some of Farragut's most talented young artists. A reception to honor the artists will be held Tuesday, Feb. 16 from 5 – 6:30 PM at the Farragut Town Hall.

Museum Black History Month Open House

Sunday, Feb. 28, 2 – 5 PM; Special Presentation, 3 PM. The Farragut Folklife Museum will celebrate Black History Month by hosting an open house in February. The focus of this year's program will be the integration of Farragut High School (FHS) and will feature a commissioned painting by artist Alan M. Jones in honor of the nine black students that began attending FHS in 1965. The community is invited to tour the Museum, enjoy light refreshments and see special exhibits celebrating Black History Month.

Farragut Blood Drive (Medic)

Monday, March 8, 10 AM – 6 PM. No appointment necessary. All donors receive a free Medic T-shirt, cholesterol level evaluation and a year of Medic's family blood coverage, which covers the blood supplier processing fee at any U.S. hospital for the donor and his or her IRS dependents. Sponsored by the Town of Farragut.

Shamrock Ball – A Father-Daughter Dance

Saturday, March 13, 7 – 9 PM in the Farragut High School Commons Area. Please see the article on Page 1 for more information.

Coming Soon!

26th Annual Bob Watt Youth Fishing Rodeo

Saturday, April 24, Registration: 4:30 PM, Fishing: 5 - 7 PM. Cost: Free. Youth ages 13 and under are invited to Anchor Park for an afternoon of fishing and competing for prizes in various categories. Sponsored by the Lovell Heights Barber Shop and the Town of Farragut.